

Bargaining and Interpretation Specialist

The Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations Inc. (SAHO) is a non-profit, non-government association which provides services to Health Sector Employers throughout the province.

As the designated employers' bargaining agent for health sector employers, SAHO leads collective bargaining and interpretation, arbitrations, classification, job evaluation, data analytics and compensation services through representation of provincial health sector employers.

The Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations Inc. (SAHO) requires a full-time Bargaining and Interpretation Specialist. Reporting to the Director, Bargaining and Interpretation, the Specialist is responsible for providing collective agreement expertise to healthcare employers throughout the province of Saskatchewan. These responsibilities include negotiation, contract administration and interpretation of provincial and single-employer collective agreements, as well as providing leadership in the planning and formulation of bargaining strategies.

The successful candidate will possess:

- A minimum of three to five years of experience in the field of collective bargaining with further experience and knowledge of labour legislation, arbitral jurisprudence, bargaining strategies and strategies that contribute to positive outcomes.
- A degree in Commerce or Business Administration or a combination of related experience and education will be considered.

Please apply in confidence by September 30, 2025, to Heather Whiting at heather.whiting@saho.ca.

Prior to being offered a position with SAHO, the selected candidate will be required to complete a criminal record check.

SAHO thanks all applicants; however, only those candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.
